Use of dates on the international calendar

We take this opportunity to remind you that the main principles of the international calendar remain the same and therefore domestic competition matches may not be played on the same dates as UEFA competition matches unless exceptional circumstances so require (as well in accordance with the Memorandum of Understanding with the European Leagues). This is to ensure the success of domestic football and UEFA club competitions. We understand that unforeseeable circumstances may result in the occasional domestic match having to be rescheduled on a UEFA club competition date. However, scheduling national league or cup matches so that they clash directly with UEFA club competition matches, or vice versa, is not in the interests of fans and is therefore harmful to football. So please ensure that these dates are respected by your association and/or by your national league when scheduling the domestic competition calendar.

Access list 2022/23

In accordance with the UEFA Champions League, UEFA Europa League and UEFA Europa Conference League regulations, the positions in the 2022/23 access list are determined on the basis of the five-season association coefficients established at the end of the 2020/21 season, i.e. the cumulative total of the associations' season coefficients from 2016/17 to 2020/21 inclusive.

This calendar and access list will be incorporated in the 2022/23 UEFA Champions League, UEFA Europa League and UEFA Europa Conference League regulations.

If you have any queries concerning the calendar or the access list for the 2022/23 season, please contact the club competitions unit of the football division.

Yours faithfully,

U E F A

Theodore Theodoridis
General Secretary
