PRELIMINARY ROUND

For this third edition of the UEFA European Women's Futsal Championship, 24 national associations have entered the competition. Each participating association starts the competition according to the futsal-A women's national team coefficient ranking. The 12 lowest-ranked associations begin the competition in the preliminary round and are drawn into 3 groups of 4 teams. For each pot, the teams drawn are allocated in alphabetical order from groups A to C.

The winner of each group and the best runner-up in the preliminary round qualify for the main round.

Pot 1: Hosts

● Serbia	Position 2	Vrnjacka Banja

● Lithuania	Position 4	Kaunas

The hosts are drawn into groups A to C. They will be assigned according to their position in the rankings.

The two teams are drawn into the remaining position 4 in groups A to C missing out the group which already has a host assigned to that position.

The two teams are drawn into position 3 in groups A to C missing out the group which already has a host assigned to that position.

All matches must be completed by 15 May 2022 at the latest.

MAIN ROUND

IMPORTANT NOTE

Based on a decision taken by the UEFA Executive Committee, Spain and Gibraltar cannot be drawn into the same group. Should Gibraltar qualify for the main round, and be drawn into the same group as Spain, we will swap them with the team in position 4 in next group in ascending order.

The three preliminary round group winners and the best runner-up join the 12 best-ranked associations to compete in the main round. The 16 teams are split into 4 groups of 4 teams and are drawn according to their coefficient ranking. Teams are allocated into Groups 1 to 4 in ascending order.

The winner of each group in the main round qualifies for the UEFA Women's Futsal EURO 2023.
