Decision of the UEFA Executive Committee regarding draws involving teams from Belarus and Ukraine

Dear Sir/Madam,

On 3 March 2022, the UEFA Executive Committee decided, after it became known that the invasion of the Ukrainian territory by the Russian army had been facilitated by access given from the neighbouring territory of Belarus, that no UEFA competition match shall be played on the territory of Belarus until further notice and no spectators shall attend matches in which the teams from Belarus features as host.

Taking into account the whole range of circumstances between the two countries, the UEFA Executive Committee has decided, on 27 May 2022, with immediate effect to prevent teams from Ukraine and Belarus from being drawn together in any future UEFA competitions until further notice.

The UEFA Executive Committee will continue to assess the developments of the situation.

Yours faithfully,

UEFA

Theodore Theodoridis
General Secretary
