Referee categories revised for the second half of the 2022/23 season

Dear President, Dear General Secretary,

The UEFA Referees Committee has reviewed the lists of UEFA football and futsal referees for the second half of the 2022/23 season, based on the 2023 FIFA list. Referees who are no longer on the FIFA list have been removed and new names added. The revised lists are enclosed.

In allocating a referee to a category, the Referees Committee takes various criteria into account, including merit, performance, fitness, experience, potential, language skills, attendance of UEFA referee courses and domestic ranking.

UEFA remains committed to training and developing referees and trusts that it can count on the support of its member associations in this respect.

Yours faithfully,

U E F A

Theodore Theodoridis
General Secretary
