Quarter-finals

Time:	13.00 CET
Duration:	approximately 10 minutes
Number of teams involved:	8
Number of seeded teams:	4 (group winners)
Number of matches:	4 x 2
Match dates:	21/22 and 29/30 March 2023

Conditions of the draw

At this stage of the competition there is no country protection.

The draw respects the following principles in accordance with Paragraphs 13.08 and 19.01 of the 2022/23 UEFA Women's Champions League regulations:

- The group winners are seeded above the group runners-up.
- The group winners must be drawn against runners-up from a different group.
- The runners-up play the first leg at home.

Draw procedure

The four balls containing the names of the group runners-up are placed in one bowl and the four balls containing the names of the group winners are placed in another bowl.

A ball is drawn from the bowl with the group runners-up. The team drawn is placed as the home team in the quarter-final 1 tie.

A ball is then drawn from the bowl with the group winners. The team drawn is placed as the visiting team to complete the quarter-final 1 tie.

The same procedure is repeated to designate the remaining three quarter-final matches.

If a group winner is drawn against the runner-up from the same group, the group winner is moved to be the visiting team in the next tie and another group winner is drawn to complete the current tie. Another group runner-up is then drawn to complete the next tie as the home team. Should a clash be possible when drawing the last two ties, the teams will be drawn and will be assigned to the ties.
