CLUB COMPETITIONS
78.3%
NATIONAL TEAM COMPETITIONS
20.4%
OTHER REVENUE
1.3%
Examples: disciplinary fines, asset management, FIFA Forward programme and net financing from reserves EURO 2024 cycle
financial years
2023/24 to 2026/27
UEFA REVENUE SOURCES
GROSS REVENUE
€ 22.0bn
€ -2.0bn
COMPETITION COSTS
€ 20.0bn
NET REVENUE INVESTMENT IN THE GAME 76.0%
goes directly to clubs 2.5%
is needed to run UEFA as a governing body 66.0%
DISTRIBUTION - CLUBS
10.0%
SOLIDARITY - CLUBS
11.8%
DISTRIBUTION - ASSOCIATIONS
9.7%
FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT
2.5%
GOVERNING EXPENSES to clubs participating in men's Champions League, Europa League, Europa Conference League and Super Cup to non-participating clubs from all 55 member associations to be invested in youth football development projects to clubs eliminated in the men's Champions League and Europa League qualifying rounds to clubs contributing to the success of national team football through the participation of some of their players to UEFA member associations participating in men's EURO, European Qualifiers and Nations League to fund other competitions such as women's, youth, futsal and the UEFA Regions' Cup to fund the HatTrick development programme – the largest solidarity initiative in European sport to fund football development projects and education, such as coaching, refereeing, women's football, non-European confederations to keep overheads to a minimum to maximise investment in the game